Letter From Our CEO

Dina Rabhan

Dear friends,

I'm delighted to present this 2019 Annual Report on our incredible year of achievement. But none of our accomplishments - such as 5 million minutes watched on our Unpacked YouTube channel or 2,200 monthly educators visits to our Unpacked for Educators website - would have been possible without your involvement. Your support has enabled us to grow our work, deepen our impact and extend our reach to Jewish educators and Jewish students.

I'm also thrilled to share the news with you that we've officially changed our name from Jerusalem U to OpenDor Media to better reflect our vision today and our mission to throw open the doors of Jewish and Israeli history and culture to this generation. Dor also means 'generation' in Hebrew - underscoring our belief that education is a generational phenomenon, passed on through historical narrative from parent to child and from teacher to student.

We are proud of our Jewish heritage and identity and excited to embrace our role in helping to ensure the continuity of future generations through high quality films and educational content.

We hope that OpenDor Media will embolden our sense of purpose and serve as a rallying call to our many donors and supporters who stand shoulder to shoulder with us on our mission.

I'm honored to have you with us on the next stage of our incredible journey.

Best regards,
DINA RABHAN

About OpenDor Media

Our Mission

OpenDor Media (formerly Jerusalem U) is a leading global non-profit media company for the 21st century. We educate, entertain, and engage our global audience by bringing to life big ideas and authentic stories, and by celebrating all things Jewish.

What We Do

We bring Jewish ideas, values and stories to life through quality filmmaking, and deliver them to a global audience of millions using today's most popular and far-reaching digital platforms like YouTube, Netflix, and Amazon.

Why We Do It

Video is the language of this generation; it informs worldview and shapes identity. With our multi-channel approach, OpenDor Media can educate, entertain and engage every Jew in every corner of the planet -- bringing infinite possibilities to today's generation.

UNPACKED FOR EDUCATORS

Unpacked for Educators

Professional tools to help educators engage and inspire students inside and outside the classroom. Unpacked for Educators combines film and video with lesson materials and experiential activities – created by educators for educators.

A woman is sitting in a wheelchair on a stage, smiling. The scene is overlaid with a blue tint.

UNPACKED

Unpacked

Short, impactful videos on our YouTube channel for the social, mobile generation that unpack and clarify the often complex issues surrounding Jewish identity, heritage and Zionism.

A group of soldiers in military gear are standing in a field. In the foreground, a person is holding a video camera on a tripod, filming them. The scene is overlaid with an orange tint.

Imagination | Productions

Imagination Productions

Award-winning films that tell the story of Israel and the Jewish people through the lens of personal experience and testimony.

Unpacked

Unpacked uses fast-paced, fact-filled and thought-provoking short videos to help high school and college students untangle the complexities of Israel and Judaism.

In 2019, we rebranded the OpenDor Media YouTube channel to Unpacked, and invested in the production of nearly 60 new videos. The majority of the videos were part of the History of Israel Explained series, which drove the channel growth.

Unpacked for Educators

Bringing Jewish life alive in the classroom

Unpacked for Educators offers videos and resources that explore the story of Israel and the Jewish people in all its complexity and sophistication. By untangling challenging ideas and bringing key historical moments to life, teachers have another way of showing students that Judaism is as meaningful and relevant as ever.

In 2019, Media Lab became Unpacked for Educators, with a new visual identity and revamped website. The education team continued to create the weekly emails, host webinars and produce educational resources to accompany the YouTube videos and feature length films. Time spent on the website and use of resources increased steadily throughout the year.

Feedback

"I have been in Israel Education for over 20 years, and the work that Unpacked for Educators has been doing is unquestionably the most helpful tool I have seen. First, it is easily accessible. Second, it is well organized. Third, and most importantly, the materials do an unparalleled job of walking a fine line between presenting the materials in a way that I can use to help my students learn about Israel...without coming across as indoctrination. There is a high degree of objectivity...This has been recognized for a few years as a desideratum in the field, and I couldn't be more pleased in the way Unpacked for Educators has stepped in to fill this gap."

Seth Korelitz, Director of Judaic Studies, Frankel Jewish Academy, Detroit, MI

"Seemingly overnight, the Unpacked's History of Israel Explained video series has become a staple of our 12th grade, year-long Israel seminar. The combination of professionally made, unbiased videos with excellent and open-ended questions makes a lesson plan on its own. In particular, we just used the 5-part series on settlements, which guided us in a meaningful way through this obviously complicated and important topic."

Neil Rubin, Chair of Jewish History, Beth Tfiloh Dahan Community High School, Baltimore, MD

"The History of Israel Explained video series has been a wonderful resource in my high-level Hebrew Honors classes and our school's Israel Leadership clubs. Authentic and historically accurate, the videos and extensive materials offer my students a learning experience that successfully bridges the gap of time and place. We are taken to Israel - past and present. The thoughtful classroom conversations that follow indicate that our students simply 'get it!'"

Michal Ilai, Israel Programs Coordinator, The Weber School, Atlanta, GA

"I not only receive the weekly newsletter, but I also READ it religiously, as opposed to many other e-messages I am overwhelmed with on a daily basis. The newsletter inspires us and my key colleagues who work with teens and young parents to introduce and to discuss various controversial subjects, while stimulating us intellectually and allowing us to grow Jewishly."

Leonard Petlakh, Executive Director, Kings Bay YM-YWHA, Brooklyn, NY

"This newsletter is something that is written in an unbiased way and is practical enough that I can use it with students without much teacher preparation. More importantly, it is thought-provoking!"

Alicia Zahn, Religious School Director, Temple Beth El, Allentown, PA

Film Programming for Schools

Four global campaigns in 2019 resulted in OpenDor Media films being seen by over 26,000 high school students.

Integrated film and education programs were run by schools for Tu Bishvat, Yom Hazikaron, Yom Ha'atzmaut and Yom Yerushalayim.

Feedback

"...They watched the full film, commented throughout and were DEEPLY moved by the film and the various stories. We had excellent conversations and several of them went home to their families telling them that they had to see this film. I will look for other times to screen it as well. Thank you!"

Educator, Temple Isaiah, Baltimore, MD

"It was amazing, and I recommended it to many other schools in the area. Absolutely fantastic video and amazing lessons provided with it."

Jessica Rosner, Science and Math Teacher, Brawerman School, Los Angeles, CA

"The documentary and discussion guides were fabulous--well researched, clearly presented and accessible to many kinds of learners."

Rabbi Noam Katz, Dean, The Leo Baeck Day School, Toronto, Ontario

"Showing videos like this inspires me to be a proud Jew."

16-year-old student, Brooklyn, NY

"I feel very fortunate to be a part of the Jewish nation."

Student, Stamford, CT

"This program made me feel more connected to my peers in Israel and America."

13-year-old student, Plymouth, MN

Impact on students

(based on 472 survey responses)

91%

Expressed a greater sense of pride in the Jewish people

84%

Imagination Productions offers top-quality story-based entertaining and original documentary films.

The stories we tell are relatable to a broad and varied audience from around the world and designed to inspire in a way that only film can.

This year, we had films in different stages of their distribution. Released in January, Sustainable Nation began its 12-month film festival run, while When the Smoke Clears was released on Amazon Prime. Imagination Productions legacy films continue to reach audiences on digital platforms.

Wonderful film that portrays the actual experiences—highs and lows—of these young men as they learn how to be a soldier and defend their country. A must see!”

Where Do We Belong?

Navigating the Realities of Being Jewish on Campus

Where Do We Belong is designed to address the complex issue of current student life and experiences head-on. It will enable students to unpack the unique challenges they face due to the rise in identity politics and intersectionality on the university campus.

Sir Martin Gilbert Jewish History Series

An exciting 40-part educational YouTube video series that will chronicle the history of the Jewish people from ancient times to the modern-day, based on Letters to Auntie Fori: The 5,000-Year History of the Jewish People and Their Faith, by renowned historian Sir Martin Gilbert. The series will bring Gilbert's relatable and engaging chapters to life in a way that will empower viewers to see how their own Jewish identity is steeped in a larger and greater Jewish story.

Explainer Series

A 50-part video series aimed at driving young audiences to our growing YouTube channel. Each 7-minute episode will explain a topic from Jewish and Israeli life to help people discover and learn more about Judaism and Israel.

Short Films

John Biggers

John Biggers is based on the true story of influential African American muralist John Biggers and his professor, Viktor Lowenfeld. Lowenfeld, an Austrian Jew, fled the Nazis in 1938 and spent several years teaching art at the all-black Hampton Institute in Virginia. In 1945, Biggers, a disillusioned young artist and navy discharge takes a surreal journey back to his all-black college in the segregated South. In an attempt to reignite his creativity, he searches for the idyllic prewar atmosphere and the professor who initially sparked his artistic journey.

Like One

Like One is a short film that follows three religious women in Jerusalem - Jewish, Muslim, and Christian - on their respective Sabbaths as they each navigate the geography of their city, culture, and family.

Documentaries

The Menachem Begin Story

A co-production with Hidden Light Institute, The Menachem Begin Story delivers an unflinching look at the life and legacy of Menachem Begin, a man described in the same breath as a lover, an outlaw, a fighter, a prisoner, a leader and a peacemaker. Whether one agreed or disagreed with him, loved him or hated him, he remains one of the greatest and most impactful modern Jewish leaders. The film examines the many ways in which his life, leadership and legacy offer us important lessons for navigating the dangers of our current social climate — from the dangers of casual and unchecked antisemitism to the imperative of including all Jews in our fight for safety, security and survival.

Mr. Pleasant

Mr. Pleasant tells the story of a dramatic moment in modern Jewish history: the 1991 airlift to Israel of Ethiopian Jewry against the backdrop of Ethiopia's brutal civil war. Asher Naim became the new Israeli ambassador to Ethiopia, knowing almost nothing about that country's Jews. Little could he imagine the role he would play in changing the destiny of this ancient Jewish community forever. Not just a story of epic rescue, the film explores challenging questions about Jewish identity, the politics of immigration, the hardships for Ethiopian Jews in Israel today, and about how every individual must find their unique role in the story of the Jewish people.

Rosov Consulting Study

The Unpacked for Educators Partner School Research Initiative in 2019-2020 is an in-depth study of the use and impact of select OpenDor Media educational content in 14 schools. With the guidance of Rosov Consulting, we will measure the impact of our content on students' attitudes, knowledge and behavior, and fine-tune our content to better meet the needs of today's young Jews and educators.
